

« And you shall be my witnesses »

(Acts 1:8)

16th ORTHODOX CONGRESS
IN WESTERN EUROPE

1st - 4th November 2018

Manosque, Sainte-Tulle - France

Under the auspices of the Assembly of Orthodox Bishops of France (AEOF)

According to the words of the Lord, Christians are called to shine with the hope and the love of God towards the world. How can the faithful, alone or in together, incarnate this mission in the complexity of the contemporary world? How can we give a pertinent witness of Christ in a secular context? How can we make our social lives and actions a sign of the presence of Christ? How can we witness to the unity of the Church in spite of the divisions between Christians? To look more deeply into these questions, in a moment of reflexion, conviviality and prayer, we invite you to come to the 16th Orthodox Congress.

Since 1971, the Orthodox Fraternity in Western Europe has organised, every three years, a congress which assembles pastors and faithful orthodox beyond the structural divisions which still separates them in Western Europe.

The Orthodox Fraternity is an ecclesiastical initiative, which was started in the 1960s by personalities such as Olivier Clément, Elisabeth Behr-Sigel, P. Cyrille Argenti, Jean Tchékan,...

The Fraternity aims to be a place of friendship which assembles people, organisations and communities who desire to work in unity for the witness of the Orthodox Church in Western Europe. The Fraternity has notably published liturgical and educational books.
